

Monitoring of the academic teachers recruitment process at the West Pomeranian University of Technology in Szczecin - 2022 report

In 2022 at the West Pomeranian University of Technology in Szczecin a total of 29 recruitment processes for academic staff positions were conducted. 16 of them were based on competitive proceedings.

There were 6 recruitment process for the position of assistant professor and 23 for the position of assistant.

There were 36 people interested in academic teaching positions at ZUT, including 5 foreigners. A total of 7 female applied for the position of assistant professor, and 9 female and 25 male for the position of assistant. The disparity in gender share among applicants for each position reflects the University's staff structure and its technical profile.

24 interviews were conducted in the recruitment processes, 11 to female and 10 to male. Finally, 25 people were employed.

